

MEDIA RELEASE

Friday, 20 April 2018

Sydney Writers Festival comes to Rockdale Library

Anna George will discuss her new novel The Lone Child at a Sydney Writers Festival event in the Rockdale Town Hall on Friday 4 May.

Anna's novel, explores how the desire to mother, and to be mothered, can be overwhelmingly seductive

Beautifully written and emotionally compelling, Anna George's The Lone Child is a novel about parenting, judgement, loss and love that asks how much you should do to help a stranger's child.

The Lone Child has been praised by Books+Publishing as "laying bare the lives of women in the vein of recent psychological thrillers from the likes of Paula Hawkins and Aoife Clifford."

Anna George: The Lone Child

Friday 4 May, 12:30pm – 1:30pm

Rockdale Library 444 – 446 Princes Highway, Rockdale

Anna George has worked in the legal world as well as the film and television industries.

Her first novel, What Came Before, was shortlisted for the 2015 Ned Kelly and Sisters in Crime Best Debut Fiction awards, and was longlisted for the 2016 International Dublin Literary Award.

She lives in Melbourne with her husband and two children.

For more information:

Communications and Events
Bayside Council
02 9562 1662
communications@bayside.nsw.gov.au