Eastgardens Library and Customer Service Centre takes out excellence award

Bayside Council's reputation for excellence has been cemented with the Eastgardens Library and Customer Service Centre's recent Excellence in Construction Master Builders Award.

On Saturday night the Patterson Building Group won the Excellence in Construction Award for its work on the Eastgardens Library and Customer Service refurbishment.

Located on the ground floor of the Westfield Eastgardens Shopping Centre, the Library and Customer Service Centre re-opened on Saturday 21 October 2017.

The Library provides a range of services and activities including popular community workshops and programs. It is also a quiet haven to relax, read the newspaper, catch up on some work or study.

The Customer Service Centre provides residents with a convenient location to pay their rates, enquire about, or lodge, a Development Application and access information about Council services.

Hours of operation for Eastgardens Library and Customer Service Centre:
